

A young boy with a joyful expression is seated in a wheelchair outdoors. He is wearing a light pink polo shirt and dark blue athletic pants with white side stripes. He is holding a large orange basketball with both hands. The background is a blurred outdoor setting with green foliage and a yellow structure. The image is framed by a white border. There are decorative geometric shapes: a yellow triangle on the left side and a green square at the bottom left corner. Two horizontal white lines are positioned above and below the main text.
